A Magical Christmas Design

As the cold crispy days of the December approach us, so does the most magical time of the year. Christmas brings out the desire for warmth, comfort and dreams. We let ourselves get involved in the atmosphere created by the seasonal red and gold tones in contrast with the grey in the sky and the white of the snow in the ground. These colors create an aura of luxury and sophistication and can be the theme to decorate the home for the season, but also to enrich any professional interior design project.

Follow the Christmas spirit and discover some of the suggestions InsidherLand has for you.

I often use golden materials with bright reflexes, which turns the pieces even more special for the most wonderful time of the year.

EAGLE SOFA

The Eagle sofa gets its inspiration from the majestic shape of the Golden Eagle's wings, used by the Kazakh Hunters to help them in their hunts through the Mongolian icy mountains. While opened, the long feathers of these birds are perfectly aligned, creating a beautiful effect. Entirely handcrafted in smooth velvet, this sofa features a luxurious red as the predominant color, the perfect tone to get any living room ready for the Christmas Eve.

INSPIRING TREES

WALL LAMP

This golden creation is an abstract representation of a tree, a natural wonder of our planet emerging in different shapes and sizes. Made in brushed brass with the best Portuguese handcrafted techniques, Inspiring Trees creates a magical environment due to its unusual shape, lighting the surroundings in an unexpected, almost ethereal, way.

TREE BRANCHES

BENCH

Bringing to mind the snow and cloudy skies of December, this unique piece takes inspiration from the irregularity found in the tree branches, with its base made handcrafted in hammered brushed brass and from the wild side of nature, with the top in white Mongolian Lamb fur. Delicate and graceful, this design is the perfect addition for a seasonal upgrade to any interior design project.

ROCK

GOLDEN DINING TABLE

Robust and uniquely irregular, the new Golden Rock dining table resembles the shape of the natural element in which it was inspired. This sophisticated creation has been recently created in gold leaf, achieving a more extravagant and luxurious look, perfect to gather the family around it and celebrate the Christmas eve.
